Empowerment of Educated women

Mrs.T.Anusha is an eminent speaker and advocate for women's education and empowerment, delivered an inspiring lecture on the topic "Empowerment of Educated Women."She emphasized that education is a powerful tool for fostering independence, confidence, and progress among women.

Educated women not only uplift their own lives but also contribute significantly to their families, communities, and the nation.

She highlighted how educated women can break barriers, challenge stereotypes, and become role models in diverse fields. The session underscored the importance of creating opportunities for women to participate in the work force, take on leadership roles, and pursue their aspirations without constraints

Synopsis:

A balanced diet includes a variety of foods from each of the five food groups, in the recommended amounts. It also provides the right proportion of nutrients, minerals, vitamins, and calories for your body. It is very important to cater to the needs of the body. One of the thumb rule is to eat all types, colors of fruits and vegetables without exception. We should eat in moderation and not eliminate any type of primary source of food. Refined and processed foods should be avoided and always prefer home-made foods. At home we can control the type of oil being used as well as avoid oils rich in trans fats and saturated fats.

Outcome:

A general tendency among the students is, their craving for junk, processed and refined food. Emphasis was laid on ill-healths of such foods. Importance was laid on necessity for balanced diet and home-cooked food.

Role of media in ensuring gender equality

Role of media in ensuring gender equality by Dr.P .SANDHYA RANI

Dr. sandhya an eminent speaker has the capability of motiviting the students. She clearly explained the role of students in colleges and alerted them from deviating from their path. She also asked the parents to play direct part in the career of the children and be partners in their developepment by encouraging them in every stage of life. The media has the capability of shaping societal perceptions, gender and can either hinder or promote gender equality.

The media promote a gender equality by creating gender-sensitive content, challenging gender stereotypes, and showing women in leadership roles. Gender equality empowers individuals to break free from harmful stereotypes and pursue their dreams, regardless of societal expectations. Achieving gender equality requires women's empowerment to ensure that decision- making at a private and public levels and access to resources are no longer. Choosing a goal is a first step to keep anyone equally motivated and to achieve.

Literate female leads to literate family

Prof. Girisham addressing the students regarding importance of literate women

It is very important that women are fully educated. Literate mothers, grandmothers, aunts and sisters make for families where everyone has the benefit of a good education. The means that the younger children will grow up in a family where education is not only valued but is seen as essential.

Savitri Bai Phule Jayanthi

Emphasising on women empowerment on Savitri Bai Phule Jayanthi On 3.1.2024

Savitri Bai got married at the age of 9 years. Her husband encouraged her to study and become a teacher. In the 18 century itself she took bold decisions and fought against child marriage, dowry and fought for other social reforms for women. She is a perfect example of Women empowerment and fought through out her life for women empowerment.

Awareness on Cervical Cancer

This program is conducted to create awareness to all the girl students regarding cervical cancer, as it is fourth most common cancer in women globally. Speaker clearly explained that lack of awareness of symptoms and risk factors for cancer may lead to late diagnosis and poor prognosis.

Feedback:

Students felt happy for organising such an amazing program as it made students understand various symptoms related to cancer initiation and its early diagnosis and various tests need to be done for early detection of cancer.
