Role of media in ensuring gender equality

Role of media in ensuring gender equality by Dr. .SANDHYA RANI

Dr. sandhya an eminent speaker has the capability of motivating the students. She clearly explained the role of students in colleges and alerted them from deviating from their path. She also asked the parents to play direct part in the career of the children and be partners in their development by encouraging them in every stage of life. The media has the capability of shaping societal perceptions, gender and can either hinder or promote gender equality.

The media promote a gender equality by creating gender-sensitive content, challenging gender stereotypes, and showing women in leadership roles. Gender equality empowers individuals to break free from harmful stereotypes and pursue their dreams, regardless of societal expectations. Achieving gender equality requires women's empowerment to ensure that decision-making at a private and public levels and access to resources are no longer. Choosing a goal is a first step to keep anyone equally motivated and to achieve.

Distribution of fruits by faculty and students

Handing over the Rice bags

Mallikamba Manovikasa kendram is an institute for rehabilitation of mentally challenged students. They have both day scholars and boarders. It is a non Government organization running on charities from benevolent people.

The students collected money and purchased rice bags, biscuits and bananas from the amount collected to Rs. 5000. All this was distributed among the inmates. The students and faculty distributed the items personally. This activity was coordinated by the Department of Zoology. Ms. M. Bhargavi initiated this activity and coordinated with the students for amount collection and procurement of students. Dr. C. Padmavati too accompanied the students.

Outcome:

Students became extremely emotional on seeing the children who had lost their coordinated movements. Many children were dependent on parents or attendants. It served as an important episode to develop empathy on our fellow human beings and learn to develop humility and concern.
