The MBA students have taken up the challenge of creating Digital awareness among the people living in the Narayanagiri village in Dharmasagar Mandal of Hanumakonda district. As technology is upgrading and opportunities are increasing, it has become essential for every individual to update themselves. In villages where the percentage of agriculturists are high, it is necessary for them to have smart phones. Using these phones they can utilize it for digital transactions as applying for crop loans or making fixed deposits of savings account or breaking the fixed deposit, instantaneously, or making payments. All these facilities save a lot of time and energy. The students helped them in downloading the Apps and operate them to help in the development of different communities.

Importance of health benefits of using Toilets

Students went to a nearby village in Dharmasagar for a period of 5 days and dug 18 pits for installation of community toilets. 50 students participated in this activity doing manual digging and helping in the installation of community toilets for the benefit of the villagers. They carried provisions and cooked for themselves and learnt about self-sustainability. Such type of activity teaches the students about hard-work, learning to sustain themselves with minimum requirements, developing social concern.

Awareness was created among the villages to utilize the built Toilets and to avoid open defecation. The importance and health benefits of Toilets was emphasized so as to encourage the villagers in using the toilets.

The students of B.Sc. collected money and fruits for the inmates of the Mallikamba manovikas kendram.. This is being run mainly for the mentally challenged children catering to places in and around Hanamakonda. They have inmates, who stay with them, in addition to this some of them come in the morning and leave in the evening. The students of our college became very emotional on seeing the children. Some of them even though they had grown up they could not eat by themselves and were being helped by others. The inmates were extremely excited to see so many students.

2. Student services-Slum children's schools:

Slum children's schools

Visiting the slum Children's schools, giving them food, playing with them and trying to motivate them was the basic aim of visiting the Slum schools. The children mainly join these schools for the incentives being provided to them. They are in such dire poverty, that their primary concern is being able to eat at least 2 times a day. Hence motivation is very low in them.

All the students had lot of dreams in their eyes. So emphasis was laid regarding hygiene to help them in maintain good health as well as to realize their dreams.

All Government schools are served hygienic food, however students are unable to realize the importance of eating balanced diet and are becoming primary sources for wastage of food. Hence students were made to realize to prevent wastage and to improve their nutritional requirements and health.

Student learning about traffic related problems

Students are enquiring and learning about the traffic related problems being faced by the Traffic police and they want to conduct awareness programs to the public to educate them.
